farm a "Pleasure Avenue" down where the concessions were last year, will open up Monday night. They will show afternoon and night through the week.

LIGHT HARNESS ENTRIES.

Entries have been closed for the trotting and pacing events in the speed ring. Secretary Richards was going over the entries for the first time Thursday. George W. Stiles, of Rome, Georgia, has written that he will come with ten fine light harness horses. Joe C. Ray, a noted horseman, has reserved seven stables for his entries. J. W. Dodge, the New York millionaire horseman, who has the best horses in the country, has written for reservations for Billy lightfoot, a trotter and Cherry Willis, a pacer, from his Hollywood stables. The men from this county who will enter horses are W. E. Forgey of Pembroke, who will enter Lon E.; A. S. Clardy of Lafayette, who will enter Bill Bailey in the paces; J. G. Jones, who will put Charles S. in the trots and R. H. Holland who has Onward Todd to wear his colors on the trotting track. Many other entries have been received.

GOT WHAT THEY WENT AFTER

Samples of Hopkinsville's Invincible Oratory Were Uncorked.

The large delegation of Hopkinsville Elks which attended the reunion at Paducah returned Thursday night and yesterday and were all delighted over the choice of the gathering to come here next year for the reunion. The Hopkinsville delegation of the antlered herd were headed by exalted ruler Vego Barnes. Hopkinsville made an excellent showing and was especially fortunate in securing the meeting for this city in 1917.

The Paducah News-Democrat says about the choice of Hopkinsville for the next meeting place.

I follow up the election of officers, motions were in order for the 1917 meet of the association. Hopkinsville was first named as a place of meeting and then Louisville put in a bid. After these motions the nominations were closed, but before the ballots were cast, some Hopkinsville business men and Elks were heard from. W. R. Howell, formerly a Paducahan, and formerly district attorney at Hopkinsville, made a brilliant speech in behalf of the 1917 Elks' convention in Hopkinsville.

Other speakers from Hopkinsville were: Ed J. Duncan, formerly exalted ruler of the Hopkinsville lodge; C. R. Clark, a representative of the mayor; L. H. Davis, representing the Hopkinsville business men. By the time these orators had finished their speeches, there was not a member present didn't believe that Hopkinsville was the garden spot of the world and the dimple of the universe.

The returned Elks say that Paducah gave the visitors a royal time and left no table unturned toward showing the Elks the best time in their lives.

Methodist Church.

Rev. Lewis Powell, D. D. Pastor.

Dr. Powell will preach on "Every Member's Sermon," at 10:45 a. m., and on "Obedience, The Test of Faith and Love."

At 3 p. m. his theme will be "Jesus An All Sufficient Savior."

Dr. Powell is anxious for every member of his congregation to be present on Sunday morning to hear his "Every Member's Sermon."

OLD HOPPER MANSION

The home of Dr. Austin Bell is undergoing improvements of a decided nature, which started this week. A spacious porch will be added to the house and terraces will go around the building. The porch and terraces will be of concrete. A hand-some pergola will be built on the right side at the back of the porch. Extensive improvements and changes will be made in the interior.

Dr. Bell's home is the old Hopper mansion, in its day one of the finest brick dwelling houses in the city. The spacious grounds have been obliterated into what is now called Hopper Court and Dr. Bell's house sets well back from the street in the center of the court. The contract has been let to Marion Meacham and the plans call for a general remodeling of the house and the addition of modern improvements, that will make it one of the most desirable homes in the city. It is situated on Eighteenth and Harrison streets.

TRIAL POSTPONED.

The examining trial of A. A. Ferguson, charged with malicious assault in connection with the accident in which little Nellie May Charlton was injured on August 13, was postponed for two weeks by City Judge Hunter Wood, Jr., yesterday. The reason for postponement was the serious condition of the child. It is hoped that spinal meningitis may be averted and that the child will soon undergo a decided change for the better.

First Christian Church.

J. Newton Jessup, Pastor.

The pastor will preach in the morning on "Numbered Hairs." In the series of Old Testament character studies the subject Sunday night will be "Rizpath, the Devoted Mother." At the night service Mrs. Nina Hatcher, daughter of the evangelist S. M. Martin, will sing "The Holy City." Mrs. Hatcher is the music director and soloist in her father's evangelistic work. She is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones.

DR. R. DADE TO PRACTICE HERE

Dr. Randolph Dade, of Oak Grove, who has been doing a large practice in that part of the county, will move to Hopkinsville and begin his practice the latter part of next month. He will take the offices and succeed to the practice of Dr. J. Paul Keith, who will leave October 15 for Louisville, where he will become a partner of his brother, D. A. Keith. The Drs. Keith will do work as X-ray specialists. Dr. Keith's family will leave with him for Louisville. Dr. Keith has been a practitioner here for many years and has a splendid practice. Dr. Dade is an experienced physician and is a graduate of Vanderbilt University.

Still Working on It

A meeting of those interested in the organization of a country club was called to meet at the Elks Home last night, by Chairman T. B. Fairleigh.

Shoes for Fall 1916

We want to talk to You about the Shoe proposition for Fall and Winter. Everybody knows the big advance in leather of all kinds. We were fortunate in buying Early and securing our Shoes with a few exceptions, but in no instances did we allow the Manufacturer to cheapen the Shoes, preferring to pay a small advance to hold our Shoes up to the High Standard of Style, Fit and Durability. We are showing EDWIN CLAPP'S, J. P. SMITH and WALKOVER as usual with the best Line of Work Shoes to be Found.
